Ikebukuro

about 30 minutes

Kawagoe

Let's walk around Koedo (Little Edo) Kawagoe.

The city of Kawagoe, as known as "the Little Edo" is only 30 minutes away from Ikebukuro.

Kawagoe is a popular tourist destination with lots of unique photo spots, such as the highway where merchants' houses reminiscent of Edo era stand in a row, "The Time Bell Tower", temples that have a long history, the street of old-fashioned Japanese confectioneries and so on. Go back in time to the old Japan!

Crea Mail

A busy street where local teenagers hang out

Taisho Romantic Dream Street

A shopping street with a 100-year old Japanese atmosphere.

Koedo Kawagoe Henshindokoro Vivian

A kimono wearing experience is available. Visitors can stroll around the city wearing their choice of kimono. There are many kinds of kimono.

Kurazakuri Zone

The streets are lined with merchants' houses from the Edo Period. Massive hinged doors and robust tiled roofs are symbols of Edo culture.

COEDO BEER

World famous COEDO BEER "Beniaka" is made with sweet potatoes harvested in Kawagoe.

Hikawa Shrine

The shrine is also known for good marriages. Sacred Site.

Kashiya Yokocho (Penny Candy Lane)

A theme park of sweets with a good selection of nostalgic mom-and-pop store candy

The Time Bell Tower

A three-story wooden building standing around 16-meters tall. The clock, still chiming four times per day, is a symbol of Kawagoe.

The quickest route and a good deal
